SAMISH NORTHWEST SINGLES REUNION

July 27, 3 pm to August 2, 12:01 pm
"Come Touch the Hem"

Featuring ministry by Evangelist Kenneth Robinson

Northwest Singles is a support group with the following goals:

- Healing: Emotional, physical, spiritual, and sense of self-worth;
- Support: Building a support system; bonding with each other;
- Commitment: Recognition of our commitment to God and God's commitment to us;
- Define life's purpose: Develop life's disciplines and clarify specific objectives;
- Doing the vision: Going beyond self, responding to God's call to us; being empowered to fulfill God's call.

Reunion activities include large and small group interaction, individual sharing time, classes, campfires, crafts, special dinners, uplifting worships and an open day trip July 30 to Friday Harbor or other events.

A full-time minister since January 1977, Ken Robinson served as an apostle from 1980 to 1996, and was ordained a member of the First Presidency in April 1996. An Australian, Ken trained and practiced as a clinical psychologist in Western Australia. He later worked as director of student counseling at the University of Canberra, and then the Australian National University. Ken and his wife, Pat Moxham Robinson, have three children: Jennifer, Gail, and Anthony.
